The Supreme Judicial Court.

Judge George M. Hanson of Calais Presiding.

The April term of the Supreme Judicial Court was brought to an abrupt close Thursday at 10 p. m. after a three days session. It is understood that Judge Hanson will return in June to dispose of several cases that were assigned at this term. On account of the illness of Judges Cornish and King the year's assignments have been changed and this called Judge Hanson to Ellsworth to preside at the Hancock County Court that convened last Tuesday. This is the third term the routine work of the Waldo County Court has been curtailed.

Attorney Hodgdon C. Buzzell kept Judge Hanson busy when he was not engaged with jury trials as he was the attorney for the libellant in thirteen of the twenty divorce cases that were decreed. Mr. Buzzell also represented Mr. Charles A. Ludwick in the counter divorce suits heard Tuesday afternoon, which were dismissed by Judge Hanson.

The case of R. L. Haswell vs. the estate of Ernest Evans with Charles O. Walker, administrator, was to recover a bill of $508 for phosphate and general expenses. Evans took the farm of the plaintiff to conduct and was eventually to inherit it, but a short time ago committed suicide, leaving the above indebtedness. The case was withdrawn from the jury and sent to the Law Court on agreement. Buzzell; R. F. Dunton and Ritchie.

The case of C. F. Thompson was brought to recover from the town of Unity $400, to the value of his horse which died from injuries alleged to have been received on account of the bad condition of the Unity roads. The defence claimed that natural conditions caused whatever defects, if any, there may have been in the roads and that the physical condition of the horse was such that his death might not have been due to the hard travelling.

After a short deliberation the jury returned a verdict for the plaintiff with damages assessed at $175. The case was taken to the Law Court on motion.

The case of Miss Geneva A. Grant of Wintport vs. the Patron's Audubon Society Mutual Fire Insurance Co. of Auburn was opened before the traverse jury and then withdrawn, as several important points of law were involved, and sent to the Law Court on report. Miss Grant, the plaintiff, testified that she bought a farm in Monroe and insured the buildings for $1,800 in the defendant company by its agent, Oscar Dow of Monroe. Later she desired to raise some money and mortgaged it to a Belfast bank for $700. The bank asked her to assign the insurance policy, which she did after being assured by Mr. Dow that it would be all right, the bank accepting her endorsement. After the buildings were burned in January, 1917, the plaintiff testified that Mr. Briggs came to Monroe as adjuster for the company, looked over the ruins and at that time told her that the loss would be paid. Later she testified that she was notified by the secretary of the company that there was a clause in the policy which made it null and void if the property was mortgaged without the consent of the company. She had never been paid any part of the claim, she said.

John Hobbs of Brooks testified that Mr. Briggs stopped one night at his home and that he drove him to Monroe and back and that Mr. Briggs told him that the loss would be paid.

For the defense Mr. Briggs denied that he told Miss Grant that the loss would be paid. He also denied that he had told Hobbs any such thing, although under cross-examination he wasn't exactly sure what he did tell Hobbs.

Oscar Dow, who admitted that he was not agent for the company at present, denied that he told Miss Grant that it would be all right for her to endorse the policy to the bank, but claimed that what he told her was that he had no authority in the matter.

W. S. Rogers of Topsham, secretary of the company, testified that he had no knowledge of the mortgage until after the fire. The case was of interest and brought out conflicting testimony.

Hon. Ansel Briggs of Auburn, president of the defendant company, admitted that he was 75 years old and had served four terms of the legislature. Hon. Oscar F. Fellows of Bangor for the plaintiff and Tascus Atwood of Auburn for the defendant.

Purdy; Wiscasset and Woolwich, John N. Palmer; Union and Washington, Chas. F. Smith.

OBITUARY.

NATHANIEL EDGAR WIGGIN.

N. Edgar Wiggin died very suddenly at his home on Main street at 8.30 a. m. Friday, April 19th. He had been in poor health for some time and a few days before his death organic heart trouble developed which caused the end. He was born in Belfast Feb. 17, 1862, the son of the late Nathaniel and Sarah Ann (Chase) Wiggin. He attended the city schools and at an early age entered the jewelry store of the late Isaac Allard to learn watch making and engraving. He followed both of these callings all of his life and was very expert in both. He worked for a time in Middleboro, Mass., and later in Presque Isle, where he was in business for himself until his health failed. At two different times he was employed by H. E. McDonald, who at that time conducted a jewelry store in this city. For a number of years he was in the Harriman store in Waterville. For a good many years he was employed in the Locke jewelry store and was engaged with them there when taken ill. He is survived by his only sister, Miss Juliet A. Wiggin, with whom he made his home. He was a fine musician and was a drummer in the Belfast Band. Of a very retiring nature he mingled little in society, but was a great reader, was unusually fond of birds and a local authority on them. He loved children and all over the city in his walks they would call him by name and engage in conversation with him. His nephew, John A. Cousins and wife of Chestnut Hill, Mass., came to attend the funeral which took place at his late home Wednesday at 11 a. m., Rev. Arthur E. Wilson of the Unitarian church officiated. The bearers were Messrs. W. A., and Chas. F. Swift, Robert P. Chase and Henry D. Clark.

JOHN S. GILMORE.

John S. Gilmore died at his boarding place at the home of Mrs. Ada Russell Thursday morning, April 18th, aged 84 years. He had been ill for the past winter with a severe heart trouble and his death was not unexpected. Mr. Gilmore was born in Belfast, the son of the late David and Eliza (McKeen) Gilmore. In his early life he carried on farming in Waldo. When a young man he married Miss Olive A. Hall of Brooks. Of their family of five children two sons, Clarence P. Gilmore of Waldo and John A. Gilmore of Belfast, survive. Two daughters died in childhood, and one, Mrs. Nellie M. Gilkey of Boston, died about thirteen years ago. One brother, Abner G. Gilmore of Belfast, and one sister, Mrs. Juliette A. Ames of Belfast, who is spending the winter in Florida, survive. He enlisted in Company I of the 26th Maine Volunteers when about 27 years of age. April 14, 1863, he was wounded in the left leg at the battle of Irish Bend, and he was always lame from the effects of this injury. He received treatment at the Army Hospital at New Orleans, La. He was mustered out at Bangor August 17, 1863. Mr. Gilmore was a charter member of the Waldo County Veterans Association, was a member of Thomas H. Marshall Post, G. A. R., and a regular attendant at all of its meetings. He always had a pleasant greeting for the boys of the G. A. R. and he will be missed from its social gatherings. The funeral took place Saturday at the home of his son on Charles street, Rev. Arthur E. Wilson of the Unitarian church officiating. The bearers were Messrs. Esie Bowen, L. O. White, Jesse E. Webber and M. R. Knowlton.

MEHITABLE JANE BRIDGES.

Mrs. Mehitable Jane Bridges died at her home in Lincolnville April 20th, aged 78 years. She was born in Belfast and her maiden name was Stover. She married Capt. Henry Wyman of this city, who died July 24, 1892. Nov. 15, 1894, she married Henry B. Call of Swans Island. Later she married Mr. Bridges. For the past two years she had resided in Lincolnville. Her death was caused by bronchial pneumonia.

CHARLES G. PROCTOR.

Charles G. Proctor died at his home in East Northport April 18th, aged 65 years, 5 months and 14 days. He was born in Waldo, the son of the late Zira and Nancy (Rollerson) Proctor. He was a carpenter by trade and moved to East Northport about three years ago from Rockland. His death was caused by pneumonia with which he was ill about six days. His remains were taken to Rockland.

PAUL L. PAYSON.

Paul L. Payson, son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Payson, died at his home in Waldo April 17th, aged 20 years. The funeral took place at 1.30 p. m. Friday.

The funeral services of Mrs. Charles H. Crosby took place at her late home Friday at 3 p. m., with Rev. Arthur E. Wilson officiating. There was a large attendance of friends including the orders and societies to which she belonged. The floral offerings included beautiful pieces from the relatives, friends, the Universalist church and Sewing Circle, the Club of Eight, Aurora Rebekah Lodge and Primrose Chapter, O. E. S. The bearers were Messrs. E. A. Jones, Charles E. Johnson, Charles F. Swift and Marcellus R. Knowlton.

ADVERTISED LETTERS. The following letters remained uncalled for in the Belfast post office for the week ending April 23, 1918: Ladies—Sadie Burgess, Mrs. L. E. Black, Gentlemen—E. G. Davis, Dr. W. T. Elliott, Dr. Geo. E. Goodwin, Paul Major, Archie L. Roundy, Dr. John W. Schaffer.

The Chapman Concert.

Miss Harriet McConnell and Capt. Vernon Stiles Vocalists with W. R. Chapman Pianist.

The long anticipated Chapman concert was given at the Unitarian church Tuesday evening, when every available seat was taken, with a numberstanding. The only decorations were three beautiful flags arranged in the center and on the sides of the pulpit arch. Belfast's always appreciative audience was most enthusiastic and their repeated calls for favorite selections were very graciously responded to by the artists.

It was Miss Harriet McConnell's first concert tour in Maine and her voice of fine quality was listened to with rare delight. It is of wide range and under excellent control. In the duet selections her good nature was very apparent and of the contagious type.

Capt. Vernon Stiles, now well known in Maine's musical circles, fascinated all with his beautiful voice, his magnetic personality, his graceful dignity combined with boyish traits and his intense loyalty to the Allied cause in the great world war. His khaki uniform also added materially to the impression and accentuated the theme uppermost in his mind—help for the Allied cause. While he fascinated all music lovers with his vocal work he was intensely entertaining in his story of Camp Devens where he served as musical instructor. His announcement that he was to come to Northport this summer was received in a manner that left no doubts as to his welcome. With his family he hopes to spend three months at the Blaisdell cottage at Bay-side, where he plans to take advantage of its unusual attractions in all out-of-door sports. Capt. Stiles has offered his services to the War Department at Washington, D. C., as a recruiting officer.

Prof. Chapman made a characteristic speech telling of his work in New York city, advertising the next Maine Music Festival and thanking Mr. E. S. Pitcher and all who had the charge of the details of this successful concert.

LIBERTY DAY.

A Proclamation.

By the President of the United States of America.

"An enemy who has grossly abused the power of organized government and who seeks to dominate the world by the might of the sword, challenges the rights of America and the Liberty and life of all free nations of the earth. Our brave sons are facing the fire of battles in defense of the honor and rights of America and the Liberty of Nations. To sustain them and to assist our gallant associates in the war a generous and patriotic people have been called upon to subscribe to the Third Liberty Loan.

"Now, therefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States of America, do appoint Friday, the twenty-sixth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and eighteen, as Liberty Day.

"On the afternoon of that day I request the people of the United States to assemble in their respective communities and liberally pledge anew their financial support to sustain the nation's cause. Patriotic demonstrations should be held in every city, town and hamlet throughout the land under the general direction of the Secretary of the Treasury and the immediate direction of the Liberty loan committees organized by the Federal Reserve banks. Let the nation's response of the Third Liberty loan express in unmistakable terms the determination of America to light for peace, the permanent peace of justice.

"For the purpose of participating in Liberty Day celebrations all employees of the federal government throughout the country whose services can be spared may be excused at twelve o'clock noon, Friday, the twenty-sixth day of April.

"In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

"WOODROW WILSON."

"By the President: ROBERT H. LANSING, Secretary of State."

THIS IS LABOR'S WAR.

This is labor's war. No element of the people of this country, or of other countries, would suffer more than the workers from a German victory—a German peace.

"What the Germans mean by a 'strong peace,' a 'German peace,' was recently expressed by Gen. Von Liebert, a leading Prussian conservative.

"For us there is but one principle to be followed, and we recognize no other. We hold that might is right. We must know neither sentiment, humanity, consideration, nor compassion. We must have Belgium and the north of France. France must be made to pay until she is bled white. We must have a strong peace."

Mr. Gompers spoke well for American labor when he said:

"The Republic of the United States is not perfect; it has the imperfections of the human—but it is the best country on the face of the earth, and those who do not love it enough to work for it, to fight for it, to die for it, are not worthy of the privilege of living in it.

"I say to the Kaiser, I say to the Germans, in the name of the American labor movement: You can't talk peace with the American workers; you can't talk peace with us; you can't talk to us at all now. We are fighting now. Either you smash your Kaiser autocracy or we will smash it for you."

AMERICAN DEFENSE SOCIETY WARNING.

Every German or Austrian in the United States, unless known by years of association to be absolutely loyal, should be treated as a potential spy.

Be on the alert. Keep your eyes and ears open. Take nothing for granted. Energy and alertness may save the life of your son, your husband or your brother.

The enemy is engaged in making war in this country, in transmitting news to Berlin, and in spreading peace propaganda, as well as lies about the condition and morale of American military forces.

Whenever any suspicious act, or disloyal word comes to your notice, communicate at once with the Vigilance Corps of the American Defense Society, with the police department, the local office of the Department of Justice, or with the national headquarters of the American Defense Society, 44 East 23rd Street, New York City.

EXTEND THE GOOD WORK.

General Crosier, that nice old gentleman, who was an ornament to his profession in times of peace, and was too moderate of movement and meditative in mind in times of war, has been displaced as head of the ordnance department. Charles M. Schwab of the U. S. Steel Corporation has been made director general of the Emergency Fleet Corporation. He is the fifth man to be appointed to that position, and will assume the position of general manager. Mr. Schwab knows how to do big things and is accustomed to doing them. If he does not "speed up" construction nobody can do it. A few weeks ago Admiral Bowles was sent to Hog Island to see what could be done there. He has discharged the works manager and 14 other high paid officers and reduced the expenses $3500 a day and doubtless has already increased the efficiency of the whole working and official forces. There have been employed there several publicity officers with an alleged salary of $2000 a year. It has been said that their work has been to elaborate existing conditions, as has been done in the airplane situation. We assume that they too have gone to feed on "pastures new." At least we have not heard anything laudatory concerning affairs at Hog Island for several days.

Speaking of publicity men, reminds us of our committee on Public Information, which is composed of several very estimable men who allow Mr. Creel, their chairman, to be the judge as to how much and what sort of information the public ought to have. Mr. Creel is sometimes exuberant and sometimes secretive. Sometimes his utterances are absurd. A few days ago he is reported to have declared in a public speech that "he would be glad till his dying day that we were unprepared when we entered the war." Many people believe that Mr. Creel speaks for the President. The idea is clearly erroneous. President Wilson has a habit of speaking for himself and he speaks very eloquently and very clearly. It is not worth while to consider who Mr. Creel speaks for. He is supposed to speak for the information of the public, and the public is not satisfied with many things he has said. His usefulness as a mouthpiece is a thing of the past, if it ever existed. Our people are becoming thoroughly awakened to the German menace. They are rallying as never before to the support of the President. They want the best and most efficient men to be called to his support in every one of the many official departments in Washington and elsewhere. They want our part of the war to be carried on with all the vigor and skill which this great nation possesses. They want reorganization wherever it is needed. Let the good work begun at Hog Island be extended. We must have no more blundering, no more experiments. This war must be waged relentlessly and unceasingly. Our future as a nation, our freedom and our homes are at stake. Men who are not making good as officers must be reduced to the ranks.

NOW FOR OUR DUTY AND COURAGE.

For months the cry has come to us from Europe "send us food," "we have men," "we have munitions." To the everlasting credit of the men and women of the United States, they have conserved and the food has been sent. We shall continue to send it if we go hungry ourselves. The call came for money and we sent it cheerfully and without stint. Now comes the call for men and the need is imperative. This call must be answered. What a little thing is food and how trifling a thing is money, when the call comes for men, and these the pride of the present and the hope of the future. If we had a million more men there now, trained and equipped, the war would be over in six weeks. As it is we fear that we must send twice that number. It seems now that the power and resources of the United States would be taxed to this extent before Germany can be beaten. It will be done. She will be beaten. Her maximum man power was at its highest point some time ago. The losses have been great during the last few weeks and doubtless are vastly more than those of the opposing forces. It may be a year before we can put 2,000,000 men into the field, but we can at least send across enough to make good the losses of the French and English as they occur. Germany will surely be worn down and conquered. We may be staggered by the magnitude of the task before us, and stand aghast at the tragic consequences, but this is not the time for hesitancy or pessimism, but for determination and courage. We can win and we will win.

NOT FOR OBADIAH.

Coincident with the recent Democratic convention in Portland there was a star-chamber meeting of the 4th degree members of the party who nominated Hon. B. G. McIntire for Governor and Hon. Obadiah Gardner for the United States Senate. When the Democratic oracles speak the devotees bow down. These two matters seemed to be settled. Now the government of the United States comes into the game and rules that Mr. Gardner has no lucrative office already and advises him not to seek another. The supply of putative deserving Democrats is by no means exhausted and one office spiege is all that can be afforded at present. The party is now seeking for a candidate to take the place accorded to Obadiah. Whoever is chosen, he will be second in command of a forlorn hope and, and candidates are shy of empty honors.

Texas has often been mentioned as the "Lone Star State." The Democratic telescope has discovered three stars in that State, Postmaster General Burleson, Atty Gen. Gregory and Col. House. They are seldom visible except from the political observatory.

Waldo county led the State in going over the top in the Liberty bond sale. Several of our towns put themselves on the honor roll during the first twelve hours. Belfast was the first city of the State to own the honor flag.

It is said that hundreds of English and French prisoners of war have escaped from Germany into Switzerland. This is made possible by the sending of so many of their guards to the front.

Secretary of War Baker has spent about six weeks in Europe. We are glad he has returned to Washington. Why? Oh, well, that's where he ought to be.

Tomorrow is Liberty Day. Read the President's Proclamation in another column.

Boys' Working Reserve.

AUGUSTA, April 19th. Among numerous applications which have been received at the Maine headquarters for enlistment in the United States Boys' Working Reserve is one which comes from a boy who has only one arm. The youngster lost his right arm in an accident but says that he can do as much work as a lot of boys who have the two arms with which nature provided them. The boy with one arm is a patriot. He wants to do his share of the work of winning the war. If provision can be made for him, he will be given the chance.

Another interesting development in the work of enlisting the army of the Boys' Reserve is found in the demand which is being made by Maine girls that they be given an opportunity to help on the farms. A group of Colby College girls have sent to the State headquarters a letter in which they make known their desire to find a position for the coming summer on poultry, dairy or truck gardening farms. The principal of a Maine High school writes: "I have a number of girls in this High school who are anxious to go out on the farms for the school vacation. What can be done to get them places?"

Jefferson C. Smith, the Federal Director for Maine, will see what can be done to utilize the services of the Maine girls who want to help in the raising of war-time crops.

In England, a great many women and girls have gone into farm work. They have given aid of inestimable value. The Maine Division of the Boys' Working Reserve has a committee at work studying the methods that have been adopted in England in using the boys and girls in agricultural pursuits. The report of the committee is expected to be of much assistance in the conduct of the work in this State.

Boys who served in the Junior Volunteers last year are eager to join the forces of the Reserve this year and some of them are writing to see if they cannot be placed on the farms during the planting season. They want to get to work early enough to help plant the crops which later they will cultivate and harvest. Some of the early applications have come from boys who describe themselves as chums and say they do not want to be separated. So far as is possible, the State headquarters will meet the wishes of such boys. All boys who want to enlist are urged to make application early. Principals of High schools and academies are serving as recruiting agents. Boys who are so situated that they cannot secure the necessary information and the enrollment blanks from recruiting agents should write to the headquarters of the Maine Division in the State House at Augusta.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts through the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh medicine fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Food Administration Notes.

Doubling the Ships.

"Every shipment of wheat that we can send from our ports is a shipment saved from the Argentine. Every ship can do double duty from our ports that it can do from the Argentine. Every time we save a ship we save the transport and the supply of one regiment of our American soldiers."

Wheat for Europe.

"No corn can be shipped across the Atlantic for two months after the first of April, because that is the germinating season for corn and it will not stand shipment."

"Now, in this period of extreme difficulty in Europe, the time when the morals of the civil population of the Allies is at its lowest ebb, it does not stand for us to say, 'You can wait two months and then you can eat corn.' It is for us to say 'You shall receive every solitary grain of wheat that our ports can handle.'"

How About This, Americans?

"I fear," said Lloyd George, Britain's famous statesman, in a recent speech, "I fear the disciplined people behind the German Army. I fear the rationed German family, and the determination of the German wife and sister and daughter and mother to stand and starve so that their fighting men may be fed. I fear it more than the Imperial German Army itself." Is the German family any more patriotic than the American?

ALL SORTS

Just Right.

The War Department has decided to make the German prisoners of war now held in this country earn their keep. Orders have been sent to the army officers commanding the enemy prison camps at Forts McPherson and Oglethorpe, Ga., authorizing them to utilize the labor of the 1370 inmates in completing a new system of roads about the posts.

In addition to this every interned suspect, especially members of the I. W. W., ought to be put to work.

The following is the "Hasty Pudding Song" which our grandmothers used to sing to their children. It gives us a glimpse of the energy, simplicity and spirit of the pioneer days:

The sun has set, the school is done,
The boys and girls have all come home,
And now they want their supper quick,
Go, bet, and get the pudding stick.
And now the cows are coming home,
Go, Bridget, get the pail and run,
And milk as fast as e'er you can,
And strain it in the largest pan.
Go get the bowls, and dip it up,
And drop the pudding all about.
And now, dear children, come and eat,
Your pudding's hot, your milk is sweet,
And then, at last, retire up stairs,
With fervent hearts and say your prayers,
Undress and go to bed and sleep,
Till morning light begins to peep.

A WORD WITH WOMEN

Valuable Advice for Belfast Readers.

Many a woman endures with noble patience the daily misery of backache, pains about the hips, blue, nervous spells, dizziness and urinary disorders, hopeless of relief because she doesn't know what is the matter.

It is not true that every pain in the back or hips is trouble "peculiar to the sex." Often when the kidneys get congested and inflamed, such aches and pains follow.

Then help the weakened kidneys. Don't expect them to get well alone.

Doan's Kidney Pills have won the praise of thousands of women. They are endorsed at home—read this Belfast woman's convincing statement:

Mrs. H. W. Healey, 65 Miller St., says: "About two years ago I suffered pretty bad with my back. My back was so lame I couldn't sweep the floor or do my housework and I often had to go to bed with my back aching. I knew my kidneys were disordered and bought Doan's Kidney Pills at A. A. Howes & Co.'s Drug Store. In a short time I got relief and after taking four boxes of this medicine I was cured. Since then, I have felt like a different person."

Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Healey had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

SHIPMENTS OF FOOD.

According to statistics received by Federal Food Administrator Leon S. Merrill the total amount of foodstuffs shipped in the month of March from the United States and Canada to the Allies was about 1,100,000 tons as against 750,000 for the month of February. These materials include, from the United States, about 15,500,000 bushels of wheat and its products; about 16,200,000 bushels of other grains and their products; about 80,000,000 pounds of beef products, and about 200,000,000 pounds of pork products.

Part of this vast amount of foodstuffs was provided to our soldiers and the Allies through the splendid co-operation of Maine women who signed the pledge card of the United States Food Administration and who have faithfully followed the instructions and regulations issued from time to time by the Food Administration.

University of Maine Commencement will be held May 17-20. The Commencement Oration will be given by Dr. Thomas E. Finigan, Assistant Commissioner of Education of the State of New York. He is one of the leading men of the United States in educational work. The Baccalaureate sermon will be preached by the Rev. H. E. Dunnack, State Librarian of Maine. There will be this year an unusual note of sadness in the exercises because more members of the class of 1918 are in the service of the country than will receive their diplomas on this occasion.

Nearly 1,500,000 horses and mules have been shipped from this country to Europe during the past three years. Consequently good horses are scarce, prices are high and going higher. This is especially true of heavy draft horses and high prices will continue for some years from England and France are negotiating for draft horses to be delivered after the war.

MORRILL.

Mrs. John Berry, who has been very poorly, is gaining slowly.

George Dow has had a telephone installed in his house, 13-31.

Mrs. Annie M. Simmons, who passed the winter with her children in Massachusetts, returned last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Barlow are receiving congratulations upon a twelfth-anniversary arrival in their family.

Evangelist Lawrence Greenwood of Boston will commence a series of meetings at the church May 8th to continue throughout the month of May.

Schools commenced this week. Miss Izora Duncan of Islesboro is teacher of the village primary, and Mrs. George Dow instructor in the Cross district, so-called.

Mrs. Fred Allan and son Merrill, who have been stopping for some weeks with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Nathan Hunt, left for their home in North Sedgwick last week.

Avon Blood leaves for training this week. This makes three boys taken from the family of Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Blood, and a total of six young men taken from three homes within a half mile. That might be called a spot of concentrated patriotism.

Raymond, the two-year-old son of Earle Cross, met with a sad accident last week. Somehow there was a quick acting combination of small boy and a double fisted axe with the result that the little finger on the small boy's left hand was cut off up to the hand, the next finger left just hanging, and the middle finger mutilated.

Rev. Charles M. Meserve, president of Shaw University, Raleigh, N. C., and college humor and old-time friend of the local pastor, Rev. Nathan Hunt, occupied the pulpit Sunday, April 21st, and gave a timely patriotic address upon the subject, "What is the matter with the world?" His subject was suggested by Ezekiel 9-4. In the evening he spoke upon the Indian question. Dr. Meserve can speak with authority, as for seven years he was with them in their reservation in Kansas, sent by the government. He gave some surprising facts. The Indians instead of diminishing as a race are increasing in numbers. They are per capita the richest people on the globe, as their reservation is wonderfully rich in oil wells and agricultural advantages. They are a polite people and very quick to respond to training. The latter part of his address he spoke at length of the colored race. For 25 years he has been president of the college for colored boys and girls in Raleigh and he spoke of them in the highest terms. The doctor is a very clear, convincing speaker and his two addresses were greatly enjoyed.

SWANVILLE.

Mr. Clarence Curtis who has been doing government work in a Massachusetts shipyard is at home for a short visit.

The Liberty Loan in this town overrun by something like a thousand dollars. The banner was received last Friday.

Mrs. Leon Merrithew is sick with the mumps. Mrs. Albert T. Nickerson has the grip. Both are improving under the medical attendance of Dr. F. C. Small of Belfast.

Miss Julia Chase, a teacher in one of the Everett, Mass., schools came home for one week's vacation, but owing to the ill health of her father, Mr. H. M. Chase, she will remain a while longer.

The last all day session of Comet Grange for the winter was held last Saturday with a good attendance, a bountiful and appetizing dinner—such as the Swanville sisters always prepare—and an interesting program. The next meeting is to be Monday evening, May 6th.

Your correspondents wishes to thank her young neighbors, Miss Hazel Nickerson, Master Milton Nickerson and Master Charles Trundy who surreptitiously filled her tub, which had been put out to catch water if it should rain. It was a kindly attention which she greatly appreciates.

In last week's items we unwittingly omitted two daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Tripp—Mrs. Nye and Mrs. Holt; also two daughters of Mr. and Mrs. George Ames—Mrs. Bean and Mrs. McDonald. Mr. John Tripp has been in town a few days called here by the death of his mother, Mrs. Augustus Tripp.

BROOKS.

All schools were closed Friday, it being Patriots day.

Maurice Hall has sold his driving horse to Percy Harriman of Belfast.

Miss Helen Crockett was a visitor in Bangor a few days recently.

R. J. Kenney has purchased a driving horse of Ernest Gould of Jackson.

Mr. Alex Stevens of Waterville spent the week-end with his family here.

Elmer Waning of Damariscotta visited friends in town a few days recently.

Mr. Grover Cox of Liberty visited his brother, Edward Cox and wife recently.

Mr. Eugene Grant of Frankfort visited his brother, P. H. Grant and family recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Harriman of Belfast visited her mother, Mrs. Emma Ames, Saturday.

Mrs. Emma Ames has rented the Frank Fogg house back of Harry E. Staples' residence.

Mrs. Edith Beers spent the week-end with her husband who has employment in Waterville.

Mrs. Sarah Stevens has rented the upper tenement of the Hobert Robertson house on North street.

The fourth of the series of baseball games was played between B. H. S. and Swanville last Saturday.

Miss Abbie Knowlton of Plymouth spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. E. R. Knowlton and family.

Elden Lanphier and family have moved to the Merton L. Fogg farm in Jackson. Mr. Lanphier will carry on the farm work there this summer.

Citizens of Brooks are still on the move, Manter Murphy has moved into his house purchased of C. I. Varney, formerly occupied by Simeon Crockett.

Mr. Hollis W. Jones of U. of M., Orono, and sister Christine Jones of Waterville spent the week-end with their parents, Mr. W. S. Jones and family.

Mrs. Helen Wells who has been visiting her sister Mrs. Merton Fogg has returned to her work in Boston, but is coming back to Brooks in a few weeks to spend the summer.

Mrs. W. L. Boyd of Jackson who has been living with her daughters (students in B. H. S.) in the W. S. Jones house returned to her home last week. The girls have rooms at P. H. Grant's.

Guy A. Prime and family have moved into the upper part of the C. F. Fogg tenement, M. L. Fogg having moved down stairs and Chas. Bowen and family have moved into the Mildred Emmons house formerly occupied by Mr. Prime.

Jenkins did fine work for B. H. S. pitching the entire game and has several strike-outs to his record. He is also one of the heavy hitters on the team having got three two-base hits off the opposing pitcher. The game was well played and quite a crowd was in attendance.

On Saturday, April 13th, B. H. S. B. T. played the second game with Brooks Alumni the score being B. A. 17, B. H. S. 8. The baseball ground was wet and slippery owing to a slight rain in the morning which made it rather hard playing for both teams. Norman Miller pitched the full game for B. H. S. but did not seem to come up to his usual standard of pitching, the B. A. getting 17 hits of him, while the B. H. S. got 8 hits off Hobbs and Ellis, pitchers on the B. A. Good field work was done on both teams but a few weak spots are in evidence. The following is the lineup:

Two base hits, Cook, Hobbs; 3 base hits, Gould; sacrifice hits, Bachelor, Ellis; double plays, M. Ellis to Staples; hit by pitched ball, Reynolds and Larrabee. Umpire, M. Holt. Score keeper, Bickford.

A fast game of baseball was played April 18, 1918, between Brooks High and Brooks Grammar schools. The Grammar school played a snappy game and had the lead until the beginning of the fifth inning when they began to lose to the High. This team certainly has the making of a good, fast team in the future. Lawrence Jenkins B. H. S. '18 and Clifton Roberts B. H. S. '17 played on the Grammar team and the remainder was composed of Grammar students only. Special mention should be made of Millard Boulter, a Grammar school student who has won a position as centerfielder on the B. H. S. team. He is a fast and sure player and although a little fellow will surely win his way whenever he plays. The following is the score and lineup:

NUX IRON PEPSIN and SARSAPARILLA - Effective Spring Medicine Combination.

As comprised in Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pepsin, taken in conjunction, these valuable remedies possess unequalled value for the quick relief of a long trail of ailments common in the Spring season. You know well the great tonic properties of iron. They are much increased and improved in this combination—Hood's Sarsaparilla before meals and Pepsin after.

In these days of rushing and pushing, beyond the endurance of even the most robust, nearly every man and woman needs this blood-purifying, cleansing, up-building in the Spring. If it is not supplied, the depletion of the blood and the broken-down nerves may soon give way to permanent ill-health.

If a cathartic is needed, as where there is biliousness or constipation, Hood's Pills should be taken. They are purely vegetable, do not irritate, and work all right with Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pepsin.

WHITE'S CORNER, Winterport.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Haley visited relatives in Dixmont Sunday.

Fred Bean of Dixmont was the guest of his daughter, Mrs. M. A. Haley, last week.

Mrs. R. C. Nealey is spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. S. P. Stevens.

W. E. Hebard of Carmel made a brief visit with Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Clements recently.

Mrs. T. O. Shields of West Winterport visited her sister, Mrs. S. P. Stevens in Monroe, Sunday.

W. H. Bickford has established a cream route from this vicinity to the Hood's Creamery station at Monroe.

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Clements and son Roger visited Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Clements at the village April 16th.

Mrs. C. W. Nealey attended a meeting of the W. C. T. U. at Mrs. W. H. Twombly's in Monroe Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Delia Hockenbush and Mrs. Maria Reed of Fort Fairfield have made brief visits at the homes of A. R. Wellman and C. H. Libby.

Warren Grant and family of West Winterport have moved to Monroe and will take charge at the central office of the Farmer's Telephone Line.

Miss Mildred Larby was called from Mrs. S. P. Stevens in Monroe, on account of the illness of Mrs. A. G. Larby. Mrs. Stevens is gaining slowly.

G. H. York, town chairman of the food production committee, has appointed W. S. Littlefield and Arthur J. Edmonds to assist in the work in this section of the town.

C. C. Clements, county chairman of the food production committee, attended a meeting of Comet Grange in Swanville, April 20th, in the interests of the work.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Ketcham motored from Bangor April 16th and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Jewett. They found the roads hard for an auto after leaving the State road.

Phyllis Haley and Mildred Conant, two young misses of about eleven years, have each knitted an afghan of 56 squares for the Red Cross and both have commenced another, and Miss Mildred has knitted a sweater also.

M. A. Haley went to Belfast April 16th to serve as traverse juror at the April term of court. W. S. Littlefield of Ellingwood's Corner was in attendance on the grand jury, and each was chosen foreman of his respective jury.

Mrs. Gertrude Conant Robertson arrived at the home of her parents, Hon. and Mrs. C. M. Conant, Tuesday, for several months while her husband, R. G. Robertson, has been at Camp Gordon.

There was a Patriots Day meeting at the Martin schoolhouse Friday afternoon with about 35 present. G. H. York presided and in his opening remarks urged all to assist in relieving the food shortage by planting and sowing to the extent of their ability and to co-operate with the officials in whatever work they are requested to do, and further to aid, financially, in the Red Cross, Liberty Loans, etc., as far as their circumstances will permit. The teacher, Miss Christine Coleman, had drilled the children in patriotic songs and recitations which were well rendered. Mrs. Edna Harquail of Castine and Mrs. Julia White spoke briefly and Mrs. Harquail recited the "Independence Bell" and Mrs. C. B. Jewett and Mrs. G. H. York read appropriate poems. S. Ritchie and L. M. Treat made brief remarks and all sang America. A meeting was also held at the grange hall at Cole's Corner for the same purpose, with about 45 present. A fine program was presented at this meeting.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

Whereas death has once more entered our grange and taken from us a much loved member Wm. Clements; be it Resolved, That Comet Grange, No. 70, has lost an honored charter member who was ever deeply interested in our welfare, whose genial presence will be sadly missed. Let his memory abide with us as a most worthy example charter be draped for 30 days and a copy of these resolutions be spread upon our records and a copy be sent to the local papers for publication.

COLONIAL THEATER.

Paramount, Aircraft, Metro, World and Fox Studios Contribute Their Most Notable Productions for Projection at this Popular Playhouse.

An unusually fine cast, characteristic of Metro wonderplays, supports Harold Lockwood, the star in "Trail," a drama of the time-lands based on Henry Oyen's novel, "Gaston Olaf," to be seen Thursday.

The role of Gaston Olaf is played by Mr. Lockwood and in this he is said to have the most vigorous character he has enacted before the camera in a long time. His leading woman in this picture is Sally Crute, remembered as an Edison featured player for several seasons and for her prominent part in a number of Metro subjects.

True Boardman in the popular series "The Further Adventures of Stinger" and Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Drew in a Metro comedy round out a bill of the same excellent quality, characteristic of the Colonial.

Even the many admirers of Douglas Fairbanks who are familiar with his daredevil stunts, will gasp at his new thriller disclosed in "Wild and Woolly," his newest Aircraft picture to be shown Friday.

Leaping from a porch of a house on to a moving train that is averaging forty miles an hour is but one of the many thrills performed by the athletic star in his latest film. Another startling scene is presented in a fight on horseback in which Douglas proves the victor. This is undoubtedly one of the most remarkable bits of its kind ever staged and shows the daring actor leaping from one galloping pony to struggle with the rider of another horse going at break-neck speed.

Starting in New York and ending in California, the picture discloses a variety of metropolitan and western scenes presenting the proper backgrounds to the story. As the youth of metropolitan birth who finally realizes his ambition to ride the plains of the west astride a bucking broncho, Douglas offers a wonderfully effective picture in the role of Jeff Hillington. Jeff's visions of life in the west are based entirely upon the gaudy covers of ten-cent weeklies which he has been reading since early boyhood. He pictures the west today exactly as photographs show it to have been in the early eighties.

Friends in Arizona plan to live up to his expectations and to their own surprise things turn out more seriously than they anticipated. The story ends, after many amusing as well as thrilling situations, with Jeff as the man of the hour.

Special permission was obtained from the United States Government authorities to photograph some scenes in "Somewhere in America," the Metro wonderplay in which Mary Miles Minter will appear on Saturday. The pictures of the aeroplanes and motorboats being assembled and prepared for service in France and on our coasts were taken at College Point, where Director Dowland and his assistant, Mr. Kutler, were at one time threatened with arrest for taking certain scenes which were not in their permit.

The patriotic appeal of "Somewhere in America" is general. It tells a convincing story and shows that when the test comes the American man and woman will not be found shirking. The Brooklyn Navy Yard, the scene where many of our greatest sea fighters were constructed, is pictured in this wonderplay of today.

The workings of foreign spies and the ends to which they will go to obtain plans of value to them is also shown. Uncle Sam awake ends a truly timely story.

Beautiful Dorothy Dalton in the five part Paramount play "The Price Mark" heads the program for Monday. Of this play The New York Tribune had the following:

"Anyone who likes to speculate on the two-men-and-a-woman problem will enjoy 'The Price Mark,' and it is interestingly presented. Dorothy Dalton has some excellent moments as Paula Lee, the heroine who was more sinned against than sinning, and she looks handsomer than we have ever seen her look before. The picture is beautifully staged and the Eastern scenes are particularly attractive."

Benjamin Chapin in "My Native State" will also be shown Monday.

Self-sacrifice is the dominant theme of "The Lie," the Arctcraft picture starring Elsie Ferguson offered Tuesday. In this picture of the famous New York success of several years ago, Miss Ferguson has a role which adds her ample scope for the display of her brilliant dramatic powers. The elder of two sisters, daughter of a dissipated Englishman, deliberately sacrifices the love of her sweetheart to save her sister from disastrous consequences. To the end that the honor of her family may not be tarnished she allows her sister to wed the man she herself loves. Later, however, she finds her own happiness in the role of the self-sacrificing sister, Miss Ferguson does some wonderful emotional acting and incidentally wears some striking gowns.

In the part which Margaret Illington played on the speaking stage Miss Ferguson will win new laurels for herself.

On Wednesday, Ethel Clay in the world feature, "The Whims of Society," Fatty Arbuckle in "Oh Doctor" and the Hearst News will be shown.

To People Who Can Pay More--

I know that, throughout this country, there are many Oakland owners who are prosperous enough to buy automobiles much higher in price.

But they've analyzed automobile values and find that they cannot get more intrinsic merit in a higher priced car to justify the higher first cost and greater running expense.

Accustomed to unusual performing ability and comfort, they enjoy in the Oakland Sensible Six all the virtues they demand of an automobile and they do not let its moderate price blind them to its extraordinary value.

I like to show the Oakland Sensible Six to this class of buyers because, being close students of automobile construction, they instantly recognize its fine qualities.

The high-speed overhead-valve engine delivers 44 full horse-power; the chassis is unusually sturdy, with an extra deep frame; the roomy five-passenger body of the touring car is cushioned by long, slow-acting springs and extra large tires for the car's weight.

I'll be glad to demonstrate the Oakland Six to you at your convenience—I know you will like the way this car performs.

The W. C. T. U. will meet Friday afternoon with Mrs. Minnie Coombs, Bay View street.

Mrs. Edith B. Horne has been engaged to teach the Grammar grade in East Belfast during the remainder of the school year.

Under serial call No. 121 by the War Department for industrial engineers between the ages of 35 and 45 years, Mr. Walter O. Poor of Los Angeles, Cal., son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence O. Poor of this city, has made application for the same.

Belfast and Waldo County are still increasing their sales on the Liberty Loan bonds. The city now has a total of $153,650 and the county $367,500. The following towns have sold their allotment the past week: Wintport, Palermo and Burnham; leaving Islesboro, Lincolnville, Troy and Waldo to report their allotment.

A sale of maybaskets constructed of colored paper and other decorative material will be held in the vestry of the Methodist church Monday afternoon from 3.30 to 5.30 under the direction of the Dorcas Guild. Everyone will be welcomed. Samples of the baskets offered for sale may be seen in the display window of Mrs. J. L. Sleeper.

The Maine Transportation Company of Augusta and Belfast, of which Orrin J. Dickey has been the local manager for several years operating steam cars between Rockland and Belfast, have sold their cars to Skowhegan parties. They are unable to secure drivers for their steamers. They plan to place Cadillac cars on the route the coming season.

Mrs. Charles A. Pilsbury has disposed of her household goods and moved Tuesday to the Crawford residence on Miller street, where she will remain indefinitely. Later she plans to visit in Auburn and in Bozeman, Mont. Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Wilson, who occupied the Pilsbury residence the past winter, also moved Tuesday to the Pottle house on Congress street, where they had previously lived for about eleven years. Messrs. Amasa S. Heal and Maine Hills will move to their new home, formerly the Pilsbury house, in a few days.

THE BOY SCOUTS. At their Tuesday evening meeting the boys returned their report of the canvas of the city last Friday and Saturday when they sold about $75 worth of War Savings stamps. They also did good work in the third Liberty Loan drive. Ralph Philbrook, Melvin Woods, Floyd Winchester and Eben Mank were elected to membership. Scouts Whitehead, Canning, Howard, Tuttle and Woods will be among the story tellers at the next meeting. The first hike of the season will be made Saturday when the troop will assemble at the School common and go to the "Battery," where they will spend the day with games and have a clam bake on the shore.

The war food demonstration at the Baptist vestry, under the auspices of the local conservation committee with Miss Melvina V. Parker chairman, was attended by a large number of interested home makers. Miss Ruby Barker, very well and favorably known in this vicinity in her previous demonstrations and lectures, made several war breads, etc., telling the amount of wheat conserved by these substitutes, etc. She also distributed valuable recipes for bread and pastry. Miss Jennie Minnick from the Agricultural Department at Washington, D. C., demonstrated making cottage cheese with skim milk and junket and urged all present to make all the use possible of these ingredients. She also distributed literature in regard to its nutrient, etc.

THE BOARD OF REGISTRATION. The board of registration completed their work last Saturday with the following result: Stricken off: Ambrose J. Morrison, Arthur H. Morrison, Harry P. Sweet, Holmes F. Notices have been received by the Waldo County Exemption Board for the men in the call who are to leave for Fort Slocum, N. Y., on May 1st. Only five men are to go from Waldo county at that time.

The week of May 6th will be school visiting week and all parents and friends are urged to attend. There will be no special programs, but all will be given an opportunity to see the regular work of the classes they are most interested in.

Warren F., only son of Mrs. Rose F. Fahy, has arrived in France, where he will serve as an orderly in the First Army Detachment Regiment. He has been at Charlotte, N. C., the past winter and could have been retired with a pension on account of injuries received at Augusta while in the service, but he preferred to go to France.

Supt. E. E. Roderick was in Pittsfield last Friday as one of the judges of the State preparatory school triangular debate between the Maine Central Institute and the Deering High of Portland. The question was, Resolved, That we should have State compulsory industrial insurance. The judges decided in favor of the Deering High, who had the affirmative of the question.

The Castine House, Castine, will open June 1st and close Nov. 1st. The Islesboro Inn at Dark Harbor, Islesboro, will open June 20th and close Sept. 30th. The Samoset at Rockland will open June 22nd and close Sept. 19th. The Acadian at Castine will open July 1st and close Sept. 7th. Seaside Inn, Seal Harbor, will open June 10th and close early in October.

PATRIOTS DAY. There was no public demonstration on Patriots Day as the city had raised its Liberty Loan allotment about a week before and the incentive necessary in many other cities for public demonstrations was not felt in Belfast. All the stores, offices and places of business were closed. The schools also had a holiday and sang their patriotic songs with readings, etc., on Thursday.

Charles W. Lancaster of Belfast and his nephew, Ralph L. Pitcher of Caribou, have bought the estate of Maitland B. Smith of Hartford, Conn., about 300 acres of land with farm buildings in Belfast. It consists of what is well known as the F. W. Shepherd and Samuel J. Gurney home farms. Mr. Smith when his health failed was carrying on specialized farming, including fruit, potatoes and tobacco. The farms have excellent hay fields on them.

A Red Cross benefit in the nature of a minstrel show will be given under the auspices of the North Church Guild on Monday, April 29th, at 8 p. m. in Odd Fellows Hall. Admission, 35 cents. This performance was given in the Aurora Rebekah Lodge several weeks ago, receiving very hearty commendation and many requests have been made to have it repeated. Mr. E. S. Pitcher is the director. Following the minstrel show there will be a miscellaneous program.

At their regular meeting last Tuesday afternoon Thomas H. Marshall Circle, Ladies of the G. A. R., observed Appomattox and Patriot's Day with a special program that included readings by Mrs. Ida W. Mahoney, Mrs. Mary Hollis, Mrs. Lullie P. Nichols, Mrs. Susan Patterson, Mrs. Belle P. Towle, Mrs. Dora J. Bridges, Mrs. Nettie M. White, Mrs. Frances H. Murch. Mrs. Julia G. Ferguson read a tribute to Mrs. Mary Eleanor Taxbox, the National president. The Circle voted to remain at their present meeting place.

The Booth Fisheries Company have nearly completed the extensive repairs and improvements they are making on their Belfast plant and will be ready when the fish season opens. Extensive repairs will be necessary to put the weirs in condition this spring on account of the ice damage the past winter. This work has been begun on the Islesboro, Searsport and East Belfast privileges. Judge M. W. Lord, Chester Sheldon and Charles Brown plan to begin on their weirs near Little River the last of this week if the weather permits.

The regular monthly ceremonial of the Junior Alliance Camp Fire Girls was held last Thursday evening at the home of Helen Westcott. Officers for the year were elected as follows: President, Hope Dorman; Vice President, Ava Burgess; Secretary, Barbara McKenney; Treasurer, Annie Ide; Guardian of the Camp Fire, Mrs. A. E. Wilson. Ten dollars were donated to the local Red Cross work, and five dollars for the day nursery at Cap d'Ant, France, which is under the patronage of the National Junior Alliance and other young people's societies of the Unitarian churches. At the close of the business meeting, Mr. Richard Shaw gave a most interesting talk on Life in the Far East. The girls, dressed in their ceremonial gowns, sat in a semicircle on the floor before the open fire. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Westcott, Mrs. Sarah Dinsmore, Miss Louise Hazeltine.

The U. S. Civil Service Commission announces an examination for stationary fireman on May 6, 1913, to fill a vacancy in the position of fireman-laborer, custodian service in the post office building, Belfast, Me., at a salary of $660 per year. No educational test will be given and applicants will not be assembled for mental examination. The examination will consist of the subjects of physical ability and training and experience. Applicants must be citizens of the United States and have reached their 20th but not their 50th birthday on the date of examination, except that persons honorably discharged from the military or naval service of the United States by reason of disability resulting from wounds received or sickness incurred in the line of duty, will be excused from the age limits. For application blank, Form 1800, address The Local Secretary, post office, Belfast, Me., or District Secretary, Room 145 post office building, Boston, Mass., with whom application must be filed in complete form on or before May 6, 1913.

At the regular meeting of the grange last Saturday afternoon several visitors were present, and an interesting program of readings and music was presented. The next meeting will be held in the evening as usual.

Sergt. Harold Ellingwood has been in a field hospital in France ill with measles and scarlet fever, but a letter from him recently received states that he had a light case and expected to be out before long. He speaks with enthusiasm of the excellent care he has received.

It has been estimated by one of the most experienced farmers in southern Aroostook that there will be right around 12,000 bushels of wheat planted in Aroostook county the coming season. This will make seeding of 6000 acres, with a conservative production of 25 bushels to the acre, and allowing five bushels for a barrel of flour, it will mean a production of 30,000 barrels produced in Aroostook county. With a favorable season, it means that Aroostook county will produce nearly half of the flour consumed within its borders, not to say anything of the saving in cars which it took last year to bring this amount of flour into the county.

EAST BELFAST.

Emery O. Pendleton has been on the sick list the past week.

Everett Nickerson is out and at work again after his recent illness.

Melvin Sanborn came home Friday from Bath for a visit with his parents.

Mrs. James Bickford of Camden was the guest of Mrs. Donald B. Rogers last week.

Mrs. Marie Moore returned home Wednesday. She has been caring for Mrs. Walter Bowen during her recent illness.

Edgar Clark was operated on at the Eastern Maine General Hospital, Bangor, last Thursday for appendicitis. He is doing well at this writing.

Mrs. Eva Blondel, who had left Thursday for Thomaston, where she will visit relatives a few days before leaving for her home in Mississippi.

Richard Stephenson, son of R. B. Stephenson of Swan Lake avenue, is driving R. F. D. route No. 5 in place of Otto Vaughan, who has been substituting since Forrest Robbins left this route.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pierce of Camden have decided to remain in Belfast and will occupy the home of the late Mrs. Lizzie Bassick, who was Mr. Pierce's mother. Their daughter Leola will continue her school work in Camden until June, when she will join them here.

Miss Mabel Lindsay entertained the Ladies' Aid last Friday afternoon in a manner very appropriate to the day. A delicious lunch was served, hot coffee, egg and cheese sandwiches, fancy crackers, strawberry ice cream and a cake resplendent in tiny silk American flags which, when cut, bore an emblem of Liberty for each guest. The centerpiece was a miniature Paul Revere mounted on a horse and carrying a flag. The place cards were very dainty and American flag paper napkins were used. The ladies spent the afternoon sewing on clothing for the little Belgian babies. Next Friday the meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. A. N. Snow.

NEW YORK STYLES.

Revival of Lace Trimmings Figured Chiffons. Black Satin. Foulards and Crepe De-Chine. Braiddings and Tucks.

[Correspondence of The Journal.]

New York, April 23. While many of the new spring suits, dresses, wraps and hats, show motifs in their design derived from French sources the great majority are made here and modified to suit the ideas of "Miss Knickerbocker," who is instinctively a good dresser. There is a little sameness of effect yet one note is insistent and easily recognized by the dress expert. Whatever the garment it must be built for service as well as style and the great demand is for the dress that will go anywhere at any time of day and look fit.

People have no money to waste and time is an object when every minute is filled with activities that count either for the home, city or nation.

The outlook has broadened for women as well as for men, and it is only the worth while things that appeal. There is, however, no letting down of standards, and people recognize the need of things that offer recreation. Good plays, fine music, outdoor sports, are all supported, but the more frivolous pastimes find few votaries.

Old Favorites Revived.

With the demand for demi-dresses that answer for day or evening, there has come a great number of black silk dresses, with trimmings of chantilly lace. Satin is the favorite fabric of these, and many of them have long sleeved guimpes of fine net or lace that can be doffed leaving a regulation evening frock. Some of the smartest designers show dresses of white crepe-de-chine with a sleeveless coat of black satin that can be worn or not at will. Other practical and pretty dresses of black satin have a coat effect, that is part of the costume.

New York Designs.

Some of the best and smartest models seen here are in the Simon Quality dresses, made up in every fashionable material. A dress of tan colored crepe-de-chine with blue as the color contrast has the collar, cuffs and facings of the blue. The wide belt and caught up drapery have this facings that are decorated by stitched cordings that are decidedly new and smartly effective. Whatever the material of the dress sent out from this source it can be relied upon for style and quality the two prime requisites for dress satisfaction.

Importance of Minor Touches.

It is impossible to overestimate the importance of details in dress design; the placing of buttons, a belt buckle, the shape of a cuff and its trimming. Collars are often the most important feature of the dress and the right tie or sash give just the needed touch to complete the attractiveness of the costume.

Hats should always be selected with a eye for their effect with the dresses and suits in ones outfit. Not that one needs a hat for each, but so that one or two hats will harmonize with everything one wears. Very wide brimmed straws with simple ribbon trimmings are among the smartest of the youthful models worn here, and they go with anything from a shirt waist suit to a pretty silk frock. Flower trimmings are more worn than for many years, and a good many of these are veiled with tulle or chantilly lace. Smart matrons wear very high turbans, or lower ones that are made up altogether of ostrich, either in small tips or bandings. One sees much use of Copenhagen blue in these hats and in bindings that edge black lissestraw, or the little ribbon ties that trim some of the best models.

Transparent brims, and facings and crown coverings of georgette are persisting in favor, and the printed georgette and chiffon so much used in making dressy frocks, is used considerably for millinery as well.

Lucy B. Higgins.

Lucy B. Higgins, widow of the late Joseph Higgins, died at her home in Thorndike April 2nd. She was born in Unity Feb. 25, 1834, the daughter of the late Eli and Clarissa (Berry) Vickery. When about twenty years of age she married John G. Ferguson and they settled in Hampden, Me. Mr. Ferguson lived only about five years after their marriage. In December 1869, she was united in marriage with Joseph Higgins and for nearly forty-nine years had been a resident of Thorndike, where she was loved and respected by all who knew her. She was a member of the Free Baptist church, a loyal and faithful worker in the church and Sunday school as long as her health permitted her to do so. Her faith in God and His promises never failed her. Hospitable to all who came to her home and ever ready to help the sick and needy, patience, forbearance and courtesy showed in her dear face and the labor of her hands was but the expression of her love for family, home and friends. As we who knew her, her every day life showed that she fully believed in the words "Bear ye one another's burdens." The deceased left four children, Miss C. Abbie Ferguson, J. Frank Ferguson of Minneapolis, Minn., J. Dumont Higgins of Thorndike and Mrs. W. J. Hunt of Marblehead, Mass., also one step-daughter, Mrs. Ross C. Higgins of Thorndike, three grandchildren Donald Ferguson, Arabel and Eleanor Hunt and one sister, Mrs. Clara Boulter of Waterville. The funeral services were held at the home of her son, J. D. Higgins, April 4th, Rev. E. E. Harris officiating. Many beautiful flowers were sent by loving friends. Mrs. Higgins had been cared for during her long illness by her daughter Abbie, who came from Minneapolis nearly eight years ago to be with her in her declining years.

Vincent D. Entremont, who has been helping Newell White in the printing office, has finished and is now helping Elden Vose on his farm.

PROFIT IN HOGS.

County Agent Robert M. Stiles of Somerset county is arousing considerable interest with his demonstrations of self-feeders for swine, among the farmers, as well as in the raising of forage crops.

The cafeteria or self-feeder method of giving grain is proving a great success in Maine as well as in the west. In Somerset county alone there are over 100 feeders in use. A balanced ration must, of course, be used in these feeders, or the pigs will not be healthy, and the price of grain so mixed are in direct proportion to a man's pocketbook, so that he must buy feeds which supply the nutrients at lowest cost. This is a season when a great many are planning to sow a forage crop for their hogs and thus lessen the amount of grain necessary to buy, as well as raising some home-grown feeds for next winter.

The Extension Division of the University of Maine has published a simple record book for keeping account of the expense and receipts from hogs, which they will supply to anyone in the State who will make use of same.

WOMEN ASK FOR RATIONING PLAN

American Women Volunteer to Buy Fixed Amounts of Meat, Bread Flour, Sugar and Butter.

PLAN STARTED IN NEW YORK.

Idea Supplements U. S. Food Administration's New Home Card Now in 10,000,000 Homes.

The women of America, who are anxious to do their great part in the winning of the war, are now, as a whole, familiar with the most important aspects of food conservation. The Home Card, both in its original form and in the revised edition for 1918, which provides for two wheatless days, one meatless day a week, in addition to a wheatless meal every day, has been placed by the Food Administration after a vigorous campaign in 10,000,000 American homes. An intelligent and conscientious observance of the Home Card's requirements is all the Food Administration asks of the housewives of the country.

The Food Administration has had a great many requests, however, particularly from the homes of the well-to-do, that it should issue a worked out plan for a voluntary system of rationing.

This desire for a voluntary ration springs from two causes—first, because it is far simpler for the housewife to save food when she has a concrete working plan by which to proceed, and, second, because the loyal women of America desire, unselfishly, to put themselves on the same basis as the women of the Allied countries. The ration proposed by the Food Administration is almost the same as that adopted in England for voluntary observance. All over the United Kingdom, in hundreds of houses there hangs in the front window a card with the stirring pledge, "IN HONOR BOUND WE ADOPT THE NATIONAL SCALE OF VOLUNTARY RATIONS."

The ration recommended by the Food Administration, and adopted first in New York city, whence the idea has spread through the entire country, is the following:

	Weekly Allowance Per Person
Meat—Beef (fresh, salted, tinned and hashed); mutton, lamb and veal (mutton by preference) .....	2 1/2 lbs.
Butter .....	1/2 lb.
Cooking Fats (margarine, lard, and substitutes, vegetable oils) .....	1/2 lb.
Wheat Flour (for use in cooking gravies, etc., where corn starch, cracker dust or bread crumbs cannot be substituted) .....	1/2 lb.
Victory Bread (containing at least 20 per cent. of a substitute for wheat flour) .....	1 1/2 lbs.
Sugar (including all sugar used on the table and in cooking and all sweetmeats and candies, but not that used for canning and preserving) .....	1/2 lb.

The items listed above are the only ones which are definitely limited. In the case of milk and cream, as much may be used as necessary, and children, of course, must have their full allowance of whole milk. Fish and poultry, any cereal other than wheat, vegetables and fruits and cheese may be used as freely as is desired.

The above ration is in no wise intended to supplant the Home Card, but rather to supplement it. It has been published with the idea that it will be a very real aid to the American woman in her splendid effort to carry out the great food conservation program.

USE MORE POTATOES.

CLP consume the 1917 record breaking potato crop. Government experts have estimated that over 700,000 extra acres of potatoes were planted last year. The United States Food Administration is endeavoring to push the nation's big potato stocks into channels of trade and has placed potatoes on the list of substitutes that may be bought along with wheat flour.

Potato soup has become a war dish. Here is a recipe that has been tested by United States Food Administration experts. Ingredients needed are three potatoes, one quart of milk, two slices onion, three tablespoons butter substitute, two tablespoons celery salt, one-eighth teaspoon pepper, few grains cayenne and one teaspoon chopped parsley.

Cook potatoes in boiled salted water. When soft run through a strainer. Scald milk with onion, remove onion and add milk slowly to potatoes. Melt the fat, add dry ingredients, stir until well mixed, then stir into boiling soup. Cook one minute, strain and sprinkle with barley.
